DESCRIPTION

Height: 5'6" and 6'1" tall

Sex: Male

Build: Slender to Average

Race: Black

Clothing/Disguise: The suspects disguise their features by wearing wigs, masks, sunglasses or hoods.

CAUTION

Unknown male suspects are being sought for their alleged involvement in the robberies of banks in Jackson and Kosciusko, Mississippi, from 2006 through 2010.

In each of these robberies, firearms were used to threaten bank employees, and the employees were bound with duct tape. The suspects have been dubbed the "Duct Tape Bandits." Following one of the robberies, the suspects are believed to have fled the area in a dark colored vehicle, possibly a late to mid-90s model Toyota Camry.

The suspects usually carry black handguns. They also carry duct tape and a black trash bag or a black cloth bag.

REWARD

The FBI is offering a reward of up to $25,000 for information leading to the identification, arrest and conviction of the individuals responsible for these bank robberies.
